The New Baltimore Farmers Market’s 13th Season is Open

June 3, 2020

NEW BALTIMORE, MI. –

The New Baltimore Farmers Market (NBFM) kicked off its 13th season on Sunday May 17, 2020; adapting and adding to its procedures and guidelines as recommended by the Michigan Farmers Market Association throughout the ever-evolving COVID19 pandemic. The market is held annually beginning the first Sunday in May, running through the last Sunday in October with no market held on the Sunday in June of the Annual BayRama festival. This year the NBFM continues each Sunday through October 25, 2020 with no market on June 28. The market will be continuing to take place on Washington Street between Main and Front Streets in Downtown New Baltimore. The New Baltimore Farmers Market is proud to host a wide-variety of farmers, growers, artists, crafters, community groups, educational organizations, and more with an average of 45 stalls filled per market! The NBFM is open from 9am – 2pm with DONATION Yoga in the park held during market days at 11am at Walter and Mary Burke Park just steps from the market site during the months of June through August. Yoga in presented by Santosha Yoga in Chesterfield, Michigan.

The NBFM would like to extend thanks to local leaders, community group members and business owners who continue to give overwhelming support to our organization. States NBFM Board President Caroline Glaza: “We are proud to bring the market to the community again this year despite the unprecedented times. Last season saw nearly 42,000 market visitors and over 145 local farmers / vendors. We are confident that the social safety measures we have put into place will help to keep market shoppers safe. Our changes will allow new ways for us to showcase our amended events as well as our partners, and our participants throughout the season.”

Amended event market days are planned throughout the season; with the first event this weekend, Sunday, June 7th: Annual Spring into Summer! Day: Plant, Flower and Garden Market. Information and details are available on the market’s website and partnership opportunities are still available with updates for the pandemic environment that we are currently living in.

The NBFM believes that everyone should have access to fresh, healthy, local food, which is why the market has accepted Bridge Cards since 2011, and Double Up Food Bucks (DUFb) since 2012. This season customers with Pandemic EBT (P-EBT) benefits can also use these programs. The NBFM will offer Bridge Card and P-EBT customers the chance to benefit with a “fresh produce bonus” for shopping local through the DUFb Program. The program has removed the matched limit, with SNAP customers receiving dollar for dollar in FREE funds to spend on local produce and food-bearing plants throughout the month of June (subject to be extended). Typically, the program matches up to $20 per market day in FREE Michigan produce for each shopper using their Bridge Card at the market. These programs run every season and all season long benefiting the entire community in multiple ways: the shoppers get fresh local produce, and the farmers/vendors benefit from the added sales.

The New Baltimore Farmers Market is a proud member of the Michigan Farmers Market Association \(MIFMA\) and is an independent non-profit corporation and is located on Washington Street in downtown New Baltimore, Michigan.. It is open Sundays 9am-2pm, May 6 through October 21(NOTE: no market June 25). For more information, contact Market Manager Debra Williams at 586-215-7484 or marketmanager@newbaltimorefarmersmarket.com or visit the group’s website at www.newbaltimorefarmersmarket.com.
